LOOKING AHEAD

NEW KINDERGARTEN TEACHER

My name is Carly Vickers and I am a recent graduate from Marshall University where I obtained my Bachelor's in Elementary Education. I will be pursuing my Master's of Education with Emphasis in Instructional Processes and Strategies beginning Fall of 2023, with hopes to graduate December of 2024. I attend First Baptist Church of Hurricane regularly where I participate in helping in the children's church and am an active singer in the Praise Team as well. I am very excited to educate students and spread the gospel to grow the Christian community!

NEW MS & HS GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH

Hi Calvary! I am very honored and excited to be given the head coach position for the girl's basketball program! It has always been a small dream of mine to coach a team and I'm so thankful for this big opportunity! A little about me, I am from Maine and got married this past year to Matt Jacobs who is the youth pastor here at Calvary Baptist. I graduated from Liberty University with a degree event planning and business. I have played soccer, basketball, and softball ever since I can remember and have a great passion for sports. I am beyond excited to work with these girls and continue to develop this program! - Coach Maddy

PRAISE THE LORD!

On Sunday, July 30th, three of our students were baptized! We are so happy for Zane and Parker Brumfield, and Lydia Samples for taking this important step in their walk with Jesus!
